

BADIL_Center

The destruction & dismantlement of Palestinian refugee camps

have always been part of the Zionist strategy

BADIL_Center

“

The [refugee] camps are slums that must be eliminated

- Levi Eshkol (3rd Israeli Prime Minister, 1963–1969)

BADIL_Center

“

The camps are a factory for terrorists that must be dismantled

- Ariel Sharon (Commander of the Southern Area - Gaza Strip, 1970-1971)

BADIL_Center

“

The camps' existence is a permanent reminder of the state of hostility towards Israel. They must be removed to normalize Israel's presence in the region and the world

- Golda Meir, (4th Israeli Prime Minister, 1969–1974)

BADIL_Center

“

We will reshape the camps and turn them into model neighborhoods in cities

- Menachem Milson (1st Head of Israeli Civil Administration, 1981, Village Leagues)

BADIL_Center

“

Liquidate individuals and dismantle and displace communities that resist/reject Israeli sovereignty

- Current Israeli government,
The Decisive Plan

BADIL_Center

Destroying the camps aims to eliminate one of the most important political and legal aspects of the Palestinian cause.